Barb Moe. Barb had ranch dogs growing up. She shares that most were not that helpful except for getting stock moving. She ran into her first trained ranch dog in 1991 and was so impressed that she went on the hunt for a dog that could help out on the ranch. Her family ran yearlings and momma cows in foothill country and needed a dog that could shag pairs and yearlings out of the brush and get them moving in the desired direction. She ultimately ended up with a little red-merle Australian Shepherd whose parents were the real deal. Barb entered her first ASCA trial in 1992. She tells that her first run lasted as long as a rogue goat takes to run the length of the arena. Her good little Aussie grabbed that run-away by the hind leg and held on until Barb got there. Good Dog! No goats were out on the highway or running around the fairgrounds. It was then that Barb was introduced to “thank you, thank you, thank you”. Hard to believe after this introduction, Barb continued trialing. But she did and she loves it even more today. Barb continued with that line of Aussies that her first little gal came from and used them on the ranch all the time. These Aussies became an integral part of their ranch operation. Barb’s husband, Dave, encouraged her trialing. Today Barb gives some lessons and does a few clinics. She credits all the people who she has met and worked with along the way. She has learned much about respect for people, for dogs and mostly respect for the stock she works with. She has competed at the Nationals level with great success but shares that her greatest accomplishments have all occurred on the ranch where just you, your horse and your dogs got the job done in some pretty rough country with stock that did not always want to be cooperative. Barb shares, “I do my best for my dogs when I just try to handle the stock with respect and get the best run that my dog and I have in us for that day”. There’s a lot to learn from a woman with the experience Barb Moe has had in her lifetime of working dogs!!

AGREEMENT

Herding is inherently a dangerous activity. Dogs, livestock, and people may be injured during herding. Therefore, in consideration of my working livestock with my dog, I (we) agree to the following:

1. Livestock/facility Owner has right to refuse to let me or my dog work stock.
2. Livestock/facility Owner, Clinician and ASCofMT (including its officers and members) will be held harmless from any claim, loss or injury which may be alleged to have been caused by this dog while in or about the event premises.
3. I (we) personally assume all responsibility and liability for any claim against this dog, and I (we) further agree to hold the aforementioned parties harmless from any claim for loss, injury, or damage to this dog.
4. I (we) will pay for any injuries or replacement value in the event of serious injury to the livestock caused by my (our) dog.
5. Additionally, I (we) hereby assume the sole responsibility for and agree to indemnify, defend, and save the aforementioned parties harmless from any and all loss and expense (including legal fees) by reason of the liability imposed by law upon any of the aforementioned parties for damage because of bodily injuries, including death at any time resulting there from, sustained by any person or persons, including myself (ourselves) or on account of damage to property, arising out of or in consequence of my (our) participation in this event, however such injuries, death, or property damage may be caused, and whether or not the same may have been caused or may be alleged to have been caused by the negligence of the aforementioned parties or any of their employees, agents, or any other persons.
